FOR THE ALUMNI OF SAINT JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

VOL. 20—No. 9

Collegeville, Indiana

American Alumni Council to Give $18,000 for Best Campaigns

The American Alumni Council will give $18,000 to the eight colleges and universities which carry out the most successful alumni drives.

In a move designed to broaden the base of financial support for higher education, the Council has established the Alumni Incentive Awards program, financed initially by a grant from the United States Steel Foundation.

Under the program, recognition and cash awards, including a top prize of $10,000, will go to the colleges and universities selected by a panel of judges as those which have demonstrated notable success or improvement in obtaining financial support from alumni.

8 Winners Selected

Eight institutional classifications have been established for the program, with $1,000 awards and certificates going to the leading institution in each group. The classifications include private men's colleges, into which, of course, St. Joseph's falls. The top award of $10,000 will go to the one institution rated as the leader of all eight classifications.

The first group of prizes under the Alumni Incentive Award program will be presented next winter and will cover alumni fund raising efforts in 1957-58.

Criteria that will serve as guides to the judges in making their selections will include the amount of funds raised from graduates and former students, percentage of alumni contributing, objectives, size of average gift, improvement over the previous year's record, and additional evidence of a planned effort to broaden the base of support.

$12,232 So Far

As of May 19, the St. Joseph Alumni office had received $12,232 from approximately 750 alumni in St. Joseph's Third Annual Alumni Fund. The present fund was extended seven months to July 31 in order to correspond with the College's fiscal year. In the Second Annual Fund, which ran for the 12 months in 1956, the College received $12,760.95 from 745 alumni. In 1955 the total was $14,196.47 from 733 alumni. Participation for the first two years has averaged approximately 22 percent. The goal for the Third Annual Alumni Fund is $15,000 and 1,000 participants.

The Alumni Incentive Awards program is designed to provide an added incentive both to the alumni whose support is sought and to the institutions and their formal alumni organizations seeking that support. The cash prizes will be presented to the presidents of the winning colleges and universities to be used in furthering the best interests of the alumni and educational fund raising programs of their institutions.

Ideas Welcomed

The St. Joseph Alumni office would appreciate hearing any ideas the alumni might have which might enhance contributions and place St. Joseph's in consideration for an alumni incentive award.

Annual JOE Dinner Brings Record Crowd

The annual dinner-dance sponsored by the Jasper-Owensboro-Evansville chapter May 10 attracted the largest crowd in the history of the event when 74 persons attended at the American Legion hall in Jasper, Ind. The affair even attracted two alumni from outside the chapter—Bill Smith, '43, of Louisville, and Cornelius Vanderkolk, '43, of Schererville, Ind.

The chapter also elected new officers: Jim "Deacon" Taylor, '42, of 701 E. Iowa st., Evansville, Ind., was elected president of the JOE chapter, succeeding Bill Krodel, '50; Mauri Gutgsell, '42, and Tom Berger, '50, were named as vice-presidents; Bill Browning, '43, was elected secretary; and Don Blume, '43, was named treasurer.

Seven faculty members from St. Joseph's College drove down for the event. They were Frs. Raymond Cera, Marcellus Dreil-

A REMINDER

The last day of the Third Annual Alumni Fund—July 31—is closing in. The goal is $15,000 and 1,000 participants. As of May 19, the Alumni office had received $12,232 from approximately 750 alumni (see accompanying story on this page). If you are not one of those 750 alumni, there is no need to feel left out. You still have time to be one of those 1,000.

Burkettsville, Ohio in 1937. In 1940 he was sent to St. Charles Seminary in Carthage where he did printing and clerical work until 1948.

For the next two years he was assigned to the Mission House of the Society of the Precious Blood in Charlottesville, Va., where he "performed all sorts of duties, including a lot of cooking." He came to St. Joseph's Aug. 4, 1950, and a year later took over the 'rec' hall, where he has been ever since.

Brothers Lawrence Convery and Gerard Von Hagel have been appointed to assist Fr. Daniel Schaefer, dean of men, with the operation of Raleigh hall.

Nine Alumni Appointed To Louisville Board

Rudy Volz, '53, president of the Louisville chapter, has appointed nine alumni to the chapter's board of directors.

We Hear

from TOLEDO, Ohio

Always appreciate and enjoy Contact, which is practically my only contact with SJC for many years. However, I seldom read any items or names of friends of yesteryear (1908) and 50 years should bring changes.

Ed.: Would certainly welcome more news from alumni about this era.

Am hoping some day before too long I can make another visit to Jasper County and relive some old memories for a day.

Was retired this last January and enjoying myself with this new way of living. Assist my son with his Insurance Co. to keep occupied. Our family is diminishing. Our eight children are practically out of the nest. My two youngest daughters will be married this coming August in a double wedding; one son will graduate from Ohio State this August and another with the Carmelite order and now in Washington DC completing his studies. Should be ordained in 1960. We have fourteen grandchildren.

I was going to send a picture of the graduating class of 1908 but in moving it was misplaced and cannot locate it at the moment. Composed of Classicats, Normans and Commercial with names such as Hoffman, Heckman, Buescher, Bernard Condon, Clement Boecke, Raphael Donnelly, Bundles Schmall, A. F. J. Bihl, George Lange, E. J. McSweeney, Albert Fate and myself. The others I could probably recall if I saw the picture again.

Well, that's enough from Ohio today so will conclude with greetings to all my old friends.

Very Truly,

SJC Impressive In National Test

Twenty-nine of 42 St. Joseph College sophomores who participated in the eighth annual College Accounting Testing program in May ranked in the top half among 9,601 first-year accounting students from 60 schools throughout the nation who took the exam.

The May test was the third exam given this year to the 42 students and represented a significant improvement over scores last October and January when only 17 of the St. Joseph students ranked in the upper half on each test. The median percentile for St. Joseph's in May was 58.5.

Top Competition

The program, sponsored by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, included students from such top accounting institutions as the Universities of Pennsylvania, Michigan and Wisconsin, and Syracuse, Temple, Fordham, Duquesne and Marquette Universities.

The 29 St. Joseph students who finished in the upper half included six in the top 10 percent, four in the 80-89 percentile, eight in the 70-79 percentile, five in the 60-69 percentile, and six in the 50-59 percentile. There were twice as many St. Joseph students in each of the top three percentiles as there were last October. Jack L. Keilman of Dyer, Ind. and Martin J. Rosinski of Calumet City, Ill. set the pace with a rating of 99 percentile.

Christen Wins Award

Of the 13 who finished in the bottom half among the 9,601, none of them scored in the 0-9 percentile, compared to five in October.

Meanwhile Robert E. Christen, senior from Fort Wayne, Ind., was the top St. Joseph student in the national accounting test with an 85 percentile among 1,343 students throughout the country. An award from the Indiana Association of Certified Public Accountants will be presented to Christen at the graduation ceremonies. John R. Burke of Evansville, Ind. finished one percentile below Christen.

Bena to Head Student Council

Marty Bena of Waukegan, Ill. and junior class president was elected president of the St. Joseph Student Council for next year. He succeeds Louis J. Kun of Fords, N.J. Bena, who is active in the Chicago club, the interhall committee and the Don Bosco club, defeated Junior Bob Findling of Ludington, Mich., 684-84.

Junior John Murray of Lorain, Ohio, won a close victory over sophomore class president Maurice O'Connor of Evansville, Ind., for the vice-presidency. The vote was 376-321. Juniors Tony Jacubick and Bob Stewart, both of Chicago, were voted secretary and treasurer respectively in a special runoff.

'Sacred Doctrine'

Fr. Kaiser's Introduction To Theology Published

An introduction to theology entitled "Sacred Doctrine," written by Fr. Edwin G. Kaiser, '15, professor of religion at St. Joseph's since 1944, came off the presses last month. The 344-page work was published by the Newman Press of Westminster, Md.

Recommended for laymen, the book represents the fruit of Father Kaiser's lectures to the Sisters, begun six years ago, in introduction to theology given in St. Joseph's Summer School of Theology. The final work is a condensation of the original manuscript, submitted three years ago, which was judged by the publishers to be too long and thus too expensive if put into book form. The cost of "Sacred Doctrine" is $4.50.

The Newman Press summarizes the book as follows:

"In this ideal introduction to theology, 'the word concerning God,' Father Kaiser distinguishes three elements that are essential to an understanding of sacred doctrine. These three elements constitute the plan of his work.

Nature of Theology

"In the first part, the author deals with the nature and concept of theology. The term 'theology' evolved just as the discipline itself did—as Christians contemplated revelation and began to give more and more systemization to their meditations. Father Kaiser then examines theology as it exists, in its sapiential and scientific aspects, being careful to emphasize that, though there are many diverse activities performed in theology, this diversity in no way detracts from the unity of theology. Then follows a treatment of ing at St. Joseph's, spoke on "The Relation of the Wholesale Salesman to the Retailer." Advance copies of the talk were requested by three national trade magazines.

He has traveled extensively for the Hardware Association of Kentucky and has been guest speaker at many Rotary clubs and Chambers of Commerce in cities throughout the country.

Also an instructor in management of small business at the University of Louisville in the Adult Education Division, Dieruf wrote Father Gross that he has found in these classes that "most men want to just take their places in big business on a 40-hour week, and let someone else worry about their future. If this trend would continue, we would soon have only big business and big government and this leaves much to be desired."

"This country was founded on the individual thinking of the person with a competitive spirit. If this spirit is lost we may never be able to revive it again. Each time a small businessman loses his fight with big business, a little bit of all of our personal freedom is lost with him."

Mother of the Year. A rule change was put into effect for this year's third annual Mother of the Year award—only mothers of students are eligible. During the first two years mothers of alumni and faculty and staff members were also eligible.

Full Program

The new members of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities," also cited at the assembly, were listed in a previous issue of Contact.

The awards assembly was one of the highlights of the Parents Day program which also included a band concert, dinner, open houses, the Varsity-Old Timers football game, a Mothers' club reception, an address by Fr. Raphael Gross, Benedictine, a rosary procession to the grotto, and supper.

the 'matter' of theology, the supernatural order and revealed truth, together with a penetrating study of the means by which revelation is accepted.

"The second part of "Sacred Doctrine" deals with the sources of theology. First of all, Father Kaiser treats of the sources of revelation, Scripture and Tradition. He provides a masterful treatment of Scripture in one chapter, and in a series of chapters outlines the magisterium of the Church as the bearer of Tradition. His chapters on the witness to Tradition, the fathers and the theologians, constitute, in effect, a concise history of theology. The beginner will find his cataloging of the principal theological "auctores" most useful. He concludes the second part with a consideration of the role of ancillary sciences in theology.

Method and Problems

"The concluding part deals with the third essential element of an introduction to theology: method. In addition to method, certain cognate problems are discussed: the meaning of dogma and its development, the role of analogy in theological endeavor and the signification of the various theological notes and censures.

"There is moreover, a valuable appendix listing the twenty ecclesiastical councils.

"Sacred Doctrine" is a happy combination of clarity of thought and comprehensiveness of design. As an introduction to theology it can be well recommended as a handbook for laymen, Sisters and seminarians."

Published Much

Born 65 years ago in Cedar Grove, Ind., Father Kaiser has published a large number of articles and books. He translated Josef Lortz's "History of the Church" and Ludwig Koesters' "The Church, Its Divine Authority," two works on the Rosary by Franz M. William and a life of Saint Gaspar del Bufalo, the founder of the Society of the Most Precious Blood. Moreover, he has published three works of his own and is a frequent contributor to journals and periodicals.

Even as "Sacred Doctrine" was coming off the press Father Kaiser was completing a 102-page history of St. Augustine's parish in Rensselaer in honor of the parish's 75th anniversary celebration May 18. He is now writing a translation of "Law of Christ" by Fr. Bernard Haering, a German Redemptorist priest, which will also be published by the Newman Press.

Studies in Rome

Ordained in 1921, Father Kaiser received the degree of Doctor of Theology from St. John Lateran in Rome after completing his studies there and at the Gregorianum. He taught at St. Charles Seminary in Carthage, Ohio, for 18 years before coming to St. Joseph's in 1944.

hill. The second game of the scheduled doubleheader was called after one inning because of rain.

Split With Ball State

May 24—St. Joseph's wound up the 1958 season by splitting at Ball State, taking the first game 7-3 but dropping the nightcap, 5-4. Grothouse took the decision in both games. He started and went eight innings in the opener, allowing just five hits, striking out three and walking one as the Pumas collected 11 hits, including two each by Hamman, Koehler, Kozlevcar and Kuzniar. Grothouse relieved Bob Gallaher in the sixth inning of the seven-inning nightcap with two men on and the Pumas leading, 4-2. Grothouse retired the side in order with only one run scoring, but then allowed the tying and winning runs in the seventh on an error, a walk and a two-base hit. St. Joseph's, helped by four Ball State errors, squeezed out only two hits, including a bases-empty home run by Koehler.

10 Receive Promotions

Ten St. Joseph College faculty members will receive promotions in rank effective with the 1958-59 school year.

John Mascotte Wins Conroy Oratory Medal

John Mascotte, a freshman from Fort Wayne, Ind., won the 1958 Conroy Oratory contest with his speech, "The Unsilent Generation," a commentary on the controversial Princeton letters.

Mascotte was awarded the Msgr. T. M. Conroy Memorial Gold Medal and $15 in cash. The final competition took place May 14 in the auditorium.

A $10 cash prize was awarded to Eugene Wible, a sophomore seminarian from Canton, Ohio, who placed second. Third and fourth places and $5 apiece went to William McCrea, Delavan, Ill. sophomore, and Francis Krupa, Cincinnati sophomore, respectively.

Fr. James J. Conroy, '32, the nephew of Msgr. Conroy and himself one of the first winners of the contest, was on hand to make the award. Father Conroy has sponsored the contest for many years as a tribute to his uncle, the founder.

Nine finalists were chosen from a group of 27 participants in the preliminaries, which were held May 12. The contest is judged by St. Joseph faculty members.

2 Teachers Honored

Two members of the St. Joseph faculty have been elected to Delta Epsilon Sigma, National Catholic Honor Society, in recognition of outstanding performances in their fields.

Chosen were Dr. Robert Kreyche, assistant professor of philosophy, and Mr. Adam Lesinsky, assistant professor of music.

Their Future and Yours Depend on Our Colleges

As Americans, all of us are proud of our national growth. But it is a sobering thought that the number of young men and women who want and deserve a college education will double by 1967.

Right now our colleges and universities are making a valiant effort to take care of the hosts of eager-eyed young people who are already clamoring for admittance. They have an enormous job to do, for the necessary expansion is far more than a matter of adding classrooms, laboratories and dormitory space. There must be a corresponding increase in faculty and in faculty caliber. The profession of college teaching must attract more first-rate men and women or it will be in danger of turning out second-rate graduates.

This problem of the capacity of our colleges to meet the challenge that is now upon us is vital not only to students and their parents but also to business—to industry—and to you.

It is easy to point to current shortages of engineers and scientists. Less obvious but just as pressing is the need for civic leaders—for teachers—for business administrators—for home-makers. Above all there is a need for people who have learned to think soundly and choose wisely. They are and will continue to be the backbone of our strength as a nation.

Freedom needs educated people. In this country, those who lead are those who know. Help the colleges or universities of your choice—now!
